A Brief Overview of Essential Oils

Job 12:8 a. "...or speak to the earth and it will teach you..."

What Are Essential Oils?

- Life blood of the plant
Essential agent of health and healing for plants
- 100's of chemical compounds
- Usually distilled from roots, stems, branches, leaves, seeds, fruits and flowers

What do Essential Oils do?

- Clean and clear out toxins, chelate heavy metals
- Regulate hormones
- The Anti's- antiviral, antiseptic, antibacterial, and antioxidant
- Increase or decrease body functions for balance

How do Essential Oils do it? Science can fully explain!

- Chemistry-
God designed size, shape, and solubility
Phenols, Sesquiterpenes, Monoterpenes- Prepare, Stop, Mend
Adaptogenic- Designed with homeostatic intelligence
- Energy-
Measured as frequency in megahertz
Optimal frequency for humans 60-90 mhz
Disease starts when frequency falls below 58mhz
Inter-relationship with the Limbic System

Modern science cannot reproduce in a lab, even using the same chemical compounds, the therapeutic qualities that God has designed into the very minute molecular details of essential oils.

“Jesus for Thinking People”, audio messages by Greg Boyd

Is Christianity for the “weak-minded?” “Is the Bible really true?” Boyd refutes common questions people have about the reliability of the Gospel accounts of Jesus’ life. In these talks, he addresses 2 common arguments that scholars use against their reliability. Either the accounts are intentionally false, or the authors weren’t consciously lying (they genuinely believed what they were saying), but they were just wrong about essential things regarding Jesus.

What are the Odds? By Chuck Missler

<http://wildblessings.com/what-are-the-odds/>

In the Old Testament of the Bible, over a span of 1500 years, there are over 300 prophecies detailing the coming of the Messiah, prophecies fulfilled perfectly by Jesus Christ. Chuck Missler (an engineer) shares a few of these prophecies written hundreds of years before Jesus’ birth. He calculates that the odds of only 8 of them being fulfilled by one man is 10 to the 17th power. What do you think?

Wasn’t Jesus Just a Great Moral Teacher? Mere Christianity, by C.S. Lewis

I am trying here to prevent anyone saying the really foolish thing that people often say about Him: “I’m ready to accept Jesus as a great moral teacher, but I don’t accept his claim to be God.” That is the one thing we must not say. A man who was merely a man and said the sort of things Jesus said would not be a great moral teacher. He would either be a lunatic — on the level with the man who says he is a poached egg — or else he would be the Devil of Hell. You must make your choice. Either this man was, and is, the Son of God, or else a madman or something worse. You can shut him up for a fool, you can spit at him and kill him as a demon or you can fall at his feet and call him Lord and God, but let us not come with any patronizing nonsense about his being a great human teacher. He has not left that open to us. He did not intend to. ... Now it seems to me obvious that He was neither a lunatic nor a fiend: and consequently, however strange or terrifying or unlikely it may seem, I have to accept the view that He was and is God.”

RISEN, the movie

(Available through many movie providers)

After crushing a Zealot revolution led by Barabbas, Clavius, a Roman tribune, is charged by Pontius Pilate to investigate the rumors of a risen Jewish Messiah and to locate the missing body of Yeshua (Jesus of Nazareth), in order to quell an imminent uprising in Jerusalem. Failing to find the body, Clavius seeks and finds the disciples of Yeshua, and unexpectedly finds the risen Yeshua. As a non-believer, he struggles to reconcile what he has seen with what he knows of the world.

The CHOSEN
